

Websites with advice to parents and activities to support pupils learning.

Advice/help for parents:

Oxford Owl has games, activities and a 'jargon buster'

<http://www.oxfordowl.co.uk/for-home/maths-owl/maths>

National Numeracy Parent Toolkit has tips and advice for different age groups

<http://www.nparenttoolkit.org.uk/>

More information for parents and links to activities for children

<http://www.mad4maths.com/parents/>

Help to understand how different elements are taught in school today

<http://parentsintouch.co.uk/Help-your-child-at-home-with-maths>

KS2 curriculum explained

<http://www.theschoolrun.com/what-your-child-learns-key-stage-2-maths>

Websites for pupils

<http://www.topmarks.co.uk/Flash.aspx?f=Speed Challenge>

Links to sites for children

<http://www.mad4maths.com/parents/links/>

Lots of great links to activities for children, organised in to areas taught in the National Curriculum

<http://www.primaryhomeworkhelp.co.uk/maths/>

